Spring Medicine

Everybody knows what that tired feeling is. It afflicts the man family which the weather grows warmer in the spring, or early summer. Just as Nature refreshed from her long winter rest is preparing to display her new beauty and power. The contrast between the changing season, and the condition of the body at this time makes one feel even more tired despondent and miserable. The creeping, tearing, and invigorating, in fluence which the system craves will be found in Hood's Sarsaparilla, the reliable blood purifier

Strengthen the System

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as the most reliable and best Spring medicine I ever used. ... My wife suffers from a run down condition of the system every spring. I have given her Hood's Sarsaparilla ... and it has never failed to build her up and make her feel well. I have also taken it myself with good results. I have recommended it to many others, and shall always do so." ... Mrs. J. M. CARRIN, No. 20 Madison Square, Boston, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla tones up my system ... and I feel well and strong. I take no other." ... W. J. BLAIR, Cornish, N. Y.

Purify the Blood

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for some ... I have derived benefit therefrom. It purifies the blood, gives a healthy appearance to the complexion, and I can cheerfully recommend it to those needing a blood purifier." ... JOSIAH W. GOIT, Jr., of the firm of Allen Lewis & Co., Cutlery, Lowell, Mass.

"I have made it a rule for years ... to use no medicine or blood purifier except Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have never been disappointed in its effects. ... Last Spring I was run down ... and had the advice of a physician, but ... Hood's Sarsaparilla ... restored me to full health." ... H. M. HALL, Lima, Ohio

Hood's Sarsaparilla did me a great deal of good. I had no pain or sore ... but was tired ... Hood's Sarsaparilla ... I felt much refreshed ... Mrs. G. F. SIMMONS, Colleen, N. Y.

"About a year ago I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was all run down, had no appetite, ... I could not digest food. ... Hood's Sarsaparilla ... restored me to perfect health." ... JOHN MCCAFF, Rochester, N. Y.

P. B. Perry, a former citizen of Rockland, committed suicide in Dallas, Texas, last week. The Courier Gazette gives the following particulars: In January he became insane in regard to his health, imagining himself afflicted with all sorts of diseases, and worrying about becoming a burden to his family. He had improved and recovered when in March he left Texas, and in his vicinity causing quite excitement, and the fact of his insanity at that time, resulted in his becoming violently insane. Visits were made by his brother, who was consulting as to what was best to be done with him. He had a razor and started out the back door. He was immediately followed but before he could be overtaken he had cut his throat and immediately expired. He was forty years old, a member of the Methodist church and a worthy master mason. He leaves a wife and two children.

Republican National Convention.

AT CHICAGO, JUNE 3d, 1884.

WASHINGTON D. C. Dec. 12 1883

The National Republican Convention will assemble at Chicago, Illinois on Tuesday June 3d, 1884 at 12 o'clock noon for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Each of the electors of the several States and all the voters who can safely be depended upon as Republicans who are in favor of electing Republican candidates, favor of honest elections, free ballots and fair counts, and who are in favor of the people, securing free and fair and honest recording of ballots, protection of person and property and all human rights in every section of our country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the land by insisting that a National convention, pledged to these principles and representing the Republican party in every State and Territory, is entitled to the respect and confidence of the whole country, are cordially invited to assemble in their respective States, at regular places of meeting, on Saturday, the 17th day of May, 1884, at 12 o'clock noon, and select four delegates at large from each Congressional district and two delegates at large from each State to represent such State in the Convention.

The delegates at large shall be chosen by the Republican electors of the State, in such manner as may be provided by the laws of the State, and the district delegates shall be chosen by the Republican electors of the several districts, in such manner as may be provided by the laws of the States respectively.

The basis of representation in the Convention shall be one delegate at large for each State, and one district delegate for each Congressional district, and one additional delegate for each district in which the Republican electors cast for the Republican electors at the last preceding Presidential election a number of votes equal to one half the number cast for the Republican electors in the State at large at such election.

The Republican electors of the several States and Territories, and the Republican voters of the District of Columbia, are requested to meet at their usual places of meeting on the day of the election of delegates to the Convention, and elect the delegates to which they are entitled under the basis of representation herein fixed.

The Republican electors of the several States and Territories, and the Republican voters of the District of Columbia, are requested to meet at their usual places of meeting on the day of the election of delegates to the Convention, and elect the delegates to which they are entitled under the basis of representation herein fixed.

The Republican electors of the several States and Territories, and the Republican voters of the District of Columbia, are requested to meet at their usual places of meeting on the day of the election of delegates to the Convention, and elect the delegates to which they are entitled under the basis of representation herein fixed.

On the vote of the people, therefore, Michigan was misrepresented by six votes one if eleven for the bill, Indiana was misrepresented in casting eight votes out of twenty for the bill, and Wisconsin is misrepresented in casting 5 votes in favor of the bill.

Still the showing is not for the West to rely to achieve for protection to American industry, and would have been three fourths if the election of the present House had been made after a full fight directly on the protection issue, without the result of State questions. The vote falls to represent a strong sentiment in the West for protection as it has been increased under the Democratic rule. Indiana and Illinois are the Eastern and Middle States. It

[Concluded.]

So from this knowledge, I sallied forth with head erect feeling that I could not now be caught tripping. But pride comes before a fall. About the first person I met was a mutual acquaintance, Jack Brodbridge. "Hello, Jack," I said, "I have got a fine fish for supper to-night, and you must come and help us eat it."

"Well, I like to, Jack," he replied with a grin. "I got to commence on some thing; I dare say, when he continued, "I forget, by the way, you were a sweet specimen of fool yourself not such a long time ago. I apologize for alluding to your big fish so disrespectfully, but I am sure you will pardon me when I tell you that the fish you caught was quite unintentional on your part, how did you catch him?"

I was, I suppose, of course, I said, I caught him on the stiffest, but he deserved it, for he thought it better not to trouble him. Nothing, you know, Jack, I aimed, with the greatest coolness, but I

"Then you only, Jack, I

Well, I believe it is pretty exactly general, I, modestly.

Do you say it of course it must be the general. I shall note that as a weakness. I shall think it one rather awkward for it is just a secret how many kicks you have on your flight."

The question obviously implied more of Oh, I suppose, I said, timid.

Two bucks sold! In two triangles, I mean. Whose right to join us, Mr. Cooper, or the Thistles, or the Thistles, of your own Well, I'll tell you the truth (which I see will be a little rearrangement of facts for the sake of speech), Mr. Well, I suppose I ought to be professional secrecy, so I don't like to mention names, but, by the way, I think the event name Now, before she will be Thistles of this year. Thistles might have been Thistles, or Thistles, or Thistles, or
